

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL STUDENTS

Faculty Lecture

The entire University Community is invited to the Annual Faculty Lecture of the Faculty of Basic Medical and Applied Sciences.

Title: Psychoactive Substances use in Adolescents and its Emerging Trends
Lecturer: Dr. Victor Lasebikan
Date: 5th April, 2018
Time: 4pm Prompt
Venue: Conference Centre, LCU

Attendance at the Lecture is compulsory for all bonafide students of the University. HODs are enjoined to mobilise their students for this all important lecture.

Guideline for Fellowship Groups at Lead City University

The University Chaplaincy under the direction of the Chapel Council and in cooperation with the Directorate of Student Affairs has primary responsibility for the conduct, regulation and facilitation of all Christian Religious activities on the University Campus. Therefore students and staff should take note of the following guidelines:

- * There shall be the Students' Christian Fellowship under the guidance and direction of the Chaplaincy.
- * The University shall permit other expressions of the Christian faith in and under the Students' Christian Fellowship.
- * All meetings and activities of such expressions of Christian faith shall hold in the Chapel with authorization of the Chaplaincy and in co-operation and co-ordination with the Students' Christian Fellowship.
- * All expressions of Christian faith in order to obtain recognition must register under the Chaplaincy and have from amongst the Chaplaincy a Staff Adviser who shall be responsible for spiritual guidance and mentoring.
- * No expression of Christian faith operating in the University and under the Chaplaincy shall be allowed to assume identities
  - * linked to external denominations.
- * Everyone leading expressions of Christian faith under the Chaplaincy must sign an undertaking to abide by and with rules and regulations of the University and failure to so abide will lead to sanctions on the leaders, members and the group.

NB: Any other Christian religious group meeting apart from those recognized by the University authority should be disregarded by students and staff while those behind such an unauthorized meeting will be heavily sanctioned.

Annual Medical Check-up

Please be informed that 2018 Annual Medical Check-up for members of Staff would commence on April 9, 2018 and end on April 20, 2018, Monday to Friday between 9.00am and 1.00pm each day at Lead City University Hospital.

Important Message for Career Women

- Medical Director, Lead City Hospital

Conserve your family losses of vitamin B1 (Thiamine) through:

- * Consumption of parboiled or under milled rice:
- * Avoidance of prolonged refrigeration/storage of your fruits and vegetables
- * Avoidance of toast and cereals cooked with baking soda

University Dress Code for Male & Female Students

The University expects all students to be decently and corporately dressed and have on them their Identity Cards, University Branded Lapel Pins while on campus or on excursions or institutional engagements outside the University environment.

1. Dress Code for All Female Students

- i. During normal lectures, public lectures, special ceremonies, Matriculation, Founder's Day, Convocation and Examination, all female students must be corporately dressed. To be corporately dressed connotes a smart skirt suit and blouse, or a smart dress with a pair of neat, covered shoes or sandals.
- ii. Dresses should be of knee length.
The wearing of sleeveless dresses or dresses with very tiny singlet-like straps (spaghetti strap), without a jacket, is strictly prohibited in the lecture room and in the university environment.
- iii. Strapless blouses and scarf are not allowed in lecture halls and the University environment.
- iv. Over-clinging clothing, including hipsters trousers, are not allowed in the University.
- v. Revealing blouses, especially the type of blouse that does not cover the navel, are not allowed in the lecture halls in the University environment.
- vi. Transparent dresses must be worn with singlet or other forms of inner wears. Ordinary transparent dresses are prohibited.
- vii. The Use of face-caps in Lecture and Examination Halls is strictly prohibited.
- viii. Wearing bathroom slippers is not allowed in and around the lecture halls of the University.
- ix. Female students are advised to wear hairstyles that are neat and becoming of responsible citizens.
- x. Female students may wear trouser suits with jacket to match. Tight or clinging trousers are not allowed.
- xi. Earrings and necklaces may be used by female students, provided they are not the bogus type.

- xii. Tight, Faded and ¾ Jeans/Trousers are not allowed.
- xiii. Female students can wear low sandals or covered corporate shoes.
- xiv. Piercing of any body part, other than the ear (for earrings), is prohibited, Wearing of anklet (ankle chain) is prohibited).
- xv. Tattoo on any part of the body is not allowed.
- xvi. Traditional or “native” attires are not allowed.

2. Dress Code for All Male Students

- i. All male students are expected to dress corporately. To be corporately dressed connotes a shirt tucked into a pair of trousers with tie, with or without jacket, and a net pair of covered shoes.
- ii. Traditional or “native” attires are not allowed.
- iii. No male student is allowed to wear scarves, braided hair or earrings in the University.
- iv. Fastening of trousers below the waistline is not allowed.
- v. Wearing of long-sleeved shirts, without buttoning the sleeves well or folding, as desired, is not allowed.
- vi. Shirt collars should not be left flying
- vii. Shirts must be properly tucked into the trousers.
- viii. The practice of pulling down one's trousers to the hip line is not allowed.
- ix. Male students are advised to have well-cut hair that is combed regularly.
- x. The use of face caps in Lecture and Examination Halls is strictly prohibited.
- xi. Piercing of any part of the body is prohibited.
- xii. Tattooing on any part of the body is prohibited.
- xiii. Male students are prohibited from carrying bushy and or “Afro” hair styles.

3. Uniform Dress Code for Law Students

White shirt with tie / white blouse and black trouser/skirt with or without black jacket is prescribed for female and male students in the Faculty of Law of the University. Law Students must adhere strictly to the Uniform Dress code. The University Administration will consider any violation of this code as a very serious one and severe disciplinary action will be taken against the defaulters which may include a written warning, suspension or expulsion.

NB:

Students will earn additional credits every semester for compliance to the dress code, participating in Professional Tuition Programmes, satisfactory moral conduct, service to the university community, exemplary behavior and excellence in sporting and extracurricular activities.

Feedback, Opinions & other matters of Editorial Interest should be forwarded to the director of Corporate Affairs & Communications
Lead City University, Ibadan. corporateaffairs@lcu.edu.ng; ayowolabi2002@yahoo.co.uk

* Do you have anything bothering you about student or staff welfare, management policy or any other related issues on campus?

* Do you want to give confidential reports about misdemeanour by staff or students?

* Are there issues you want to clarify or questions that require answer?

You can send confidential information to Chairman of Council via eduserveconsultng@hotmail.com OR Text: 08037250417